

Push the Button, You'll Win for Sure!!

Push the button it spins around, yeah I won 50 wow!
Who cares if it took 500 till now.

Push the button it spins some more now that's 50 gone.

I'll slip down the bank and grab 100 more, I'll win it back I've done it before.

Push the button I won another 50, man I'm good,
better than any fool in here.

If I just win 600 then I'm in the clear, bugger this machine.

That one over next to the door, that fool put in 50 it's ready to pay off for sure.

Push the button 300 I just won, should I stop a winner or walk out the door, nah bugger it, just 50 more.
Six hours later, my pay is all gone, I've got that loot for food, I'll have to carry on, you'll see, I'll win, I'll win for sure.

Not like that lady crying over near the front door.

Dam, I'm broke, what do I do.
Just wait till the next pay, I'll win then too.

Mark.
